

LIAISON 1-4

6 August 1957

AGENDA FOR MEETING ON RELATIONS BETWEEN GEOGRAPHIC RESEARCH AREA, CIA, AND
SPECIAL ADVISOR ON GEOGRAPHY, DEPARTMENT OF STATE
13 AUGUST 1957

1. Responsibility for Territorial Studies

CIA Position: State Department is the proper clearing house for U.S. Government policy on questions of boundaries and territorial status; CIA is prepared to relinquish to the Special Advisor all responsibility for seeking and disseminating such policy decisions. CIA will continue to perform independent research in these matters in support of internal operations. It will also expect to provide research support to the Special Advisor in his policy determinations. Reproduction of such D/GG files as the Special Advisor may require will be at State Department expense.

2. Cartographic Support

CIA Position: Within its capabilities, CIA will continue to provide cartographic support to the Special Advisor as required.

3. Map Library Support

CIA Position: The Map Library will continue to serve the special needs of State Department in addition to those of CIA. A joint memo will establish the individual responsibilities, in the Department, of the Special Assistant for Maps and the Special Advisor on Geography.

4. Document Routing

CIA Position: Documents presently directed to the Office of the Special Assistant for Maps will be routed as follows:

- 25X1A9a 25X1A9a
- a. Single copies, with map interest -- [redacted] Percy, [redacted]
 - b. Single copies, no map interest -- Percy [redacted] 25X1A9a
 - c. Multiple copies - [redacted] and Percy, 25X1A9a independently

5. Access to D/GG

CIA Position: The Special Advisor will have access, on request, to all substantive files other than those identified as Top Secret or Internal CIA Use Only; D/GG will sanitize the files concerned prior to such examination. The Special Advisor will be informed of these limitations. Projects relating to a single Branch will be accepted or rejected by the Branch Chief concerned; those which relate to more than one Branch will be relayed to the Division Chief for decision.

6. Requests to be Placed on State Department

CIA Position: CIA will expect to place periodic requests on the Special Advisor for support or assistance, commensurate with his capabilities.
